Nestled in scenic Ulster County, Lippincott Manor features one of the most beautiful country rustic settings in the Hudson Valley. This unique site; situated on 15 charming acres, offers breathtaking views of the Wallkill River and Shawangunk Mountains.

Along with beautifully landscaped grounds that are yours "exclusively" serving one function daily, you'll be sure to enjoy the gorgeous sunsets that provide memories that will last a lifetime.

Southern Ulster County in New York, is one of the premier wedding locations in the Hudson Valley, situated 75 miles north of N.Y.C. The area is perfect for every vintage, countryside event whether you are envisioning a simple summertime wedding or an extravagant fall celebration.

All our gourmet dishes are prepared by proficient culinary chefs. It's no wonder Lippincott Manor has earned the reputation of being one of New York's Premier destination wedding venues.

Lippincott Manor is a family owned and operated catering facility specializing in outdoor weddings and providing individual planning and customized packages. Your hosts, owners Martin & Patricia Van Dyk, who live on the estate, pride themselves on personal service, paying attention to every detail, while offering affordable prices. Martin & Patricia truly treat each and every wedding as if it were their own. They develop close relationships with the couples playing an active role from the first visit until saying goodbye as Mr. & Mrs.

~ Clients Testimonials ~

"An absolutely magical venue with the best atmosphere. Was not too hot for a summer night, the breeze and outdoor seating options were perfect. Our night went without a hitch thanks to our wonderful hosts Tricia & Marty. They were so accommodating and really helped make our vision come to life. They could not have made the process easier. We would definitely recommend this venue to anyone looking for a spring, summer or fall wedding. The grounds and background are stunning and the tent is so beautiful. Perfect for any style wedding!"
